ABOUT NOSAC

- Founded in 1993, the National Organization of State Associations for Children (NOSAC) is a national coalition of CEOs of state associations of child welfare and behavioral health organizations.
- NOSAC has 32 member executives who lead their own statewide associations in every region of the U.S.
- Collectively, NOSAC's member CEOs represent over 1,400 child welfare and behavioral health provider organizations.

WHAT WE DO

- Twice a year, NOSAC member executives hold meetings in destination cities to learn about emerging public policy issues and to share best practices in association management.
- Our biannual meetings last Wednesday night through Saturday afternoon and include many learning, networking and socializing activities.

BI-ANNUAL MEETING AUDIENCE

- The chief executives of our member associations such as CEOs of the California Alliance of Child and Family Services and the New York Council of Family & Child Caring Agencies.
- The list of current NOSAC member associations can be found on our website: www.NOSAC.org.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

- Businesses and organizations are invited to market their products and services to our member executives during our bi-annual meetings.
- For a minimum sponsorship fee of $2,000 per meeting, sponsors have the opportunity to:
 - Host a dinner or social activity and make a 15-minute presentation directly to NOSAC member CEOs during the meeting.
 - Display their logo on the meeting materials and on the NOSAC website for a one-year term.
